NU living Health and Safety Policy Statement

The Policy of NU living is to comply with all legislative requirements to ensure so far as is reasonable practicable, the Safety, Health and Welfare of all its employees and those persons not in our employment, who may be affected by our work activities.

- We are committed to securing the safety and welfare of all. We will provide the necessary resources, structures and procedures that are required to safeguard all affected persons against the risks arising from our activities in the workplace.
- We are committed to the prevention of injury and ill health at all of our workplaces.
- We recognise and support the strict duty of all our employees to conform to our safety policy and practices. We ask them to carry out their personal responsibilities as detailed in the Safety Statement and in accordance with any other relevant legislation.
- All persons who authorise work must ensure the safety, health and welfare of all persons involved, directly or indirectly.
- We strive to ensure continual improvement in all aspects of our activities. We are committed to improving our systems where best practice and legislative requirements or changes in our business demand so. We will achieve this by taking a proactive approach to the management of safety and health and welfare. We recognise that it is an integral part of managing a successful business.
- We will ensure that applicable legislative requirements are identified and adopted as our minimum acceptable performance standards; however we will always strive for best practice.
- We will provide a framework for setting and reviewing occupational health and safety objectives. NU living will set and review these objectives and targets related to OH&S.
- We will ensure that all employees receive the necessary training and appropriate information and instruction to ensure that they are competent and safety conscious.
- We will operate a robust and systematically reviewed safety management system, with the provision of necessary internal and external resources, including financial commitments to ensure its success and manage safety.
- The Board of Directors gives full backing to this policy and will support all who implement it.

This statement of intent related to the Company Policy will be displayed and permanently at all sites and workplaces.
